Study Space, Meeting Rooms & Tech Help

Please note, for your convenience, we now offer online self-serve meeting and study room reservations on our website www.northlibertylibrary.org (under Quick Links near the bottom left-hand side of our homepage).

Study Rooms

We have three study rooms devoted to quiet study. Reserve online, walk in or call ahead. Please allow up to 24 hours for confirmation for online reservations. Space can be reserved for up to a three-hour block.

Meeting Rooms

We have a large meeting space that is broken down into three smaller meeting rooms available for non-profit use. Reserve a meeting room online or by calling the library. Please allow up to 24 hours for confirmation for online reservations. Meeting rooms cannot be used for private parties such as weddings, showers, reunions or birthdays. The North Liberty Recreation Center, ph. 626.5716, has fee-based meeting space available for for-profit purposes.

Looking for a job?

We have job search/career computers available upon request. These computers allow up to four hours for job searching and career development only.

One-on-One Computer Help By appointment ONLY

Need a little extra help with technology? Contact Janet at 626.5777 to schedule an appointment. Please note that library staff is not authorized to do repairs of computers, phones or other devices.

eBooks/eMedia & Electronic Resources

Access eBooks, Magazines & Online Reference Databases from Anywhere

You will need your library card with patron ID number found on the back. Go to our website www.northlibertylibrary.org and click on the Reference tab. Select Digital Johnson County, RB Digital or TumbleBooks for eBooks/eMedia, or desired database, log in if prompted and go!

Available Online References: We offer access to a variety of databases including A to Z World Travel, Consumer Reports, Glassdoor, Heritage Quest, Learning Express, Mango Languages, The New York Times, NovelList and more.

Digital Johnson County

You will need your library card number (all 14 characters, NO space) and must be a resident of North Liberty or rural Johnson County to access Digital Johnson County through the NLCL. Download additional software to your device and follow instructions for checkout/downloading.

Library Board of Trustees

Library Board Meeting

3rd Monday of each month; 6:30pm

Meetings held at the City of North Liberty Council Chambers, 3 Quail Creek Circle, North Liberty. Televised on NLTV channel 5.

Library Board of Trustees

If you are interested in an opportunity to serve on the library board and help your community, please contact Library Director Jennie Garner at 626.5778 or jgarner@northlibertyiowa.org.

Volunteer Opportunities

Library Volunteers

There are several volunteer opportunities available in the library. We accept volunteers beginning in 6th grade. Pick up a Volunteer Application in the library or print one from our website at www.northlibertylibrary.org under the Volunteer tab. Turn it in at the library Information Desk and appropriate staff will be in contact with you.

FRIENDS of the Library

Meet the Board at the Friends' Annual Meeting

Wednesday, April 17, 5:30pm

Enjoy refreshments, meet the Friends Board members, and hear about the great things that Friends helped the library accomplish this year.

Annual Friends Contribution

The Friends of NLCL support the library year-round with funds and volunteer time so we are able to expand services and offer more programs. Please consider making a tax deductible contribution to the Friends to help continue this good work! And, if you are interested in volunteering with FRIENDS to help at events, please contact Library Director, Jennie Garner, at 626.5778 or by email jgarner@northlibertyiowa.org.

Book Sale Donations

The library is accepting gently used books, books on CD, cake pans and DVDs with newer copyrights for our Friends annual book sale in June. Please note: We are unable to accept moldy or musty materials. Please no Readers Digest condensed books, textbooks, medical or law materials, VHS or cassette tapes.

Policy, Procedures, and Special Services

LIBRARY CHILD SAFETY POLICY

While all ages are welcome in the library, library staff is not responsible for unattended children. Parents and caregivers are expected to monitor activities and behavior of young children who require supervision. Please see the Library Child Safety Policy for more information. See the Recreation Center Child Safety Policy for details on age requirements for the Rec Center.

LIBRARY CARDS

Adults are asked to provide a current, government-issued photo ID and proof of residence at time of registration. Children may register for a library card at any age when they can accurately provide full name, address, phone number, and birthday. Parent or guardian permission must be provided for children who are unable to provide accurate registration information. Please see the Library Service Policy for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY PERMISSION

The North Liberty Library may be taking photos at library sponsored programs for marketing purposes. Your participation in the program signifies your permission.

FOOD ALLERGY NOTICE

On occasion, food items may be offered at library programs that contain allergens. If you have concerns, please check with staff for a list of items. Parents are encouraged to bring alternative snacks to these events.

HOMEBOUND PATRONS

The library offers a delivery program for patrons who are not able to visit the library because of a temporary or permanent disability. This service is free. Contact the library for more information or to request materials.

NOTARY SERVICES

Notary is a service available free of charge. The library now has two notaries on staff. Please call the library to ensure availability. Valid photo ID is required for each person listed on document(s) being notarized.

ONE-ON-ONE COMPUTER HELP

Computer assistance available by appointment only. Call the library at 319.626.5701 to schedule an appointment with our Technology Services Librarian.

SPECIAL EVENT HOURS

For special programs and events that are scheduled outside of normal library business hours: doors to the library will open 15 minutes prior to the event. Keep in mind that no other library services will be offered at these times.

PROGRAM REGISTRATION

The library is now using Eventbrite for program registration. Larger programs with no limit on registration will open the 1st Monday of the new brochure (January, May, September). Although registration will not be limited you must register so we can plan space/supplies accordingly. Programs with limited registration will open the Monday of the week prior to the event. Hosted events where the presenter requires payment will take place via presenters website (ex. Tinted Vintage). If you register for a program that you are later unable to attend, please let us know or cancel your reservation on Eventbrite.
