ACTIVITIES

Use the space on the back of the log or a separate paper to complete activities as needed.

- Read 20 minutes Repeat as many times as you like.
- Check it out Check out a book from the library. What book did you choose?
- Ask a librarian Ask a librarian for a book recommendation.
- Book Review Write a review for a book that you've read.
- Explore Visit the Resources page on the library website and explore a database. Which one did you choose?
- Join us Attend a library or City Slate event.
- Where we come from We are all unique, while also part of a bigger community. What's unique about you?
- Illustrate Draw a self portrait
- Story A hitúnkakanpi is a story that has been passed down. Share a story that's been passed down to you.
- Language Communication is important. How might you talk with someone who speaks another language?
- Place Describe the place you live. Use specific words, many sentences, or even write a short poem.
- Your own life Create a picture that represents your story. Draw, collage, paint, or use anything that helps you share your story. Include people, places, and things that mean something to you.
- Spirit West African ancestors resisted and stood up for themselves to create a better future for their children. What is something you stand up for and why?
