VISION S N

The North Liberty Library champions lifelong learning and equitable access by providing resources in a safe and inclusive space to expand literacy, promote diverse thought, and share authentic experiences.

Library Service Program

The North Liberty Library is open seven days a week, for a total of 67 hours. The Library operates in conjunction with an advisory board composed of six (6) trustees.

Approved by the Library Board of Trustees, April 2025

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT POLICY

I. Purpose Statement

The collection development policy is a guide for librarians in selecting materials and to inform the public about the principles behind collection development decisions. Collection development is the ongoing process for adding materials to the collection, retaining materials already in the collection, withdrawing materials from the collection, and choosing materials for library programs, promotions and professional development in an effort to increase both the quality, accessibility, and quantity of the entire collection.

Materials selected for the collection will meet both the current and long-term needs of North Liberty and area residents of all ages and abilities for information, education, culture and recreation. Library staff is committed to offering the widest possible range of subjects and views in varying formats and reading levels, within budget and space, and in consideration of current holdings and demand. Collection development will support the priorities of the goals in the Library's strategic plan. Ultimate responsibility for collection development lies with the Director.

II. Materials Selection Guidelines

- A. The Library recognizes that any given item or subject may offend some people and because the Library follows the accepted principles of intellectual freedom and the right to access information, we will not remove specific titles solely because individuals or groups may find them objectionable.
- B. The library subscribes to the principles embodied in the Library Bill of Rights, Freedom to Read and Freedom to View statements adopted by the American Library Association (ALA).
- C. Selection of books and/or materials is based on interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the communities served and to represent a wide variety of viewpoints. Materials will not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
- D. Items must align with the Library's mission statement and chosen roles for service.
- E. Selection considerations include cost, space limitations, availability from approved vendors, current holdings and demand.
- F. Selection will not attempt to duplicate the resources of larger research institutions. Merits of a work must be in relation to the needs and interests of the community.
- G. As a general rule, the library will acquire only works of interest to the layperson.
- H. Items considered for selection are evaluated as a whole, not based on a particular section or sections.
- I. Professional reviews in periodicals and online may be used as a basis for evaluation in conjunction with publishers' catalogs and advertisements.
- J. When possible, digital materials are selected in accordance with this policy. Digital materials may, however, be provided as shared content with partner libraries. As such, titles in these collections may be selected by other library partners and may not conform to this policy's guidelines.

- K. Purchasing materials for the collection does not include endorsement of their contents by the staff of the Library or the City of North Liberty.
- L. Patron suggestions for materials selection will be taken into consideration within the parameters of the Collection Development Policy, budget, and physical space.

III. Access

- A. Selection of materials is not restricted by the possibility that children may obtain materials their parents or legal guardians may consider inappropriate. While materials are shelved by recommended age, patrons of any age may use materials in all sections of the library (see ALA Bill of Rights, Article V). Responsibility for children rests solely with their parents or legal guardians.
- B. While an individual or group is free to reject material, library staff members will not restrict access to or censor materials for the rest of the community.

IV. Selection Responsibility

- A. Responsibility for collection development lies with librarians who apply professional knowledge, experience, and the criteria of this policy to making selection decisions for the library.
- B. Formats may include but not be limited to fiction and non-fiction print materials for all ages, magazines and newspapers, DVDs, audiobooks, electronic content, and digital databases. Evolving formats will be identified and added as technology changes, reliability and availability improve, and patron demand increases.

V. Collection Maintenance

- A. To ensure that the library collection remains up-to-date and relevant to the community's needs, it is the responsibility of the selectors to reevaluate, on a regular basis, the usefulness of materials held in the collection.
- B. Selectors will remove materials from the collection as they become out-of-date, badly worn, damaged, or are no longer being used. Space, cost of replacement, and appearance of the collection are also factors. Locally significant materials are not held to these standards and are generally retained. Materials withdrawn from the North Liberty Library may be sold in library book sales or recycled.

VI. Gifts & Donations

- A. Gifts are vital to the establishment and growth of the library. The library retains unconditional ownership of any accepted gift. Any gift considered by the library for inclusion into the library collection must meet the same selection criteria as purchased materials. The library staff further reserves the right to decline gifts and to decide when a gift added to the collection will be withdrawn.
- B. Donations may include library materials and monetary gifts. Monetary gifts are extremely useful in supplementing the library budget. Gifts may be given to be used at the discretion of Library Administration for programs and services currently in greatest need. While gifts are not accepted with stipulations, Library staff will consider the interests of the donors in determining how to use monetary gifts that may be designated by the donor for specific purposes within the library's programming, collection, and services criteria.

- C. Gifts are tax-deductible but library staff may not set fair market or appraisal values for donated materials. Receipts are available upon request.
- D. Materials may be donated only in formats that are also available in the library including but not limited to: print books, unabridged audiobooks on CD, and DVDs. Donations of magazine subscriptions can be designated by either the donor or the library staff. Materials not added to the collection may be accepted on behalf of the Friends of the North Liberty Library to be used for annual book sales, proceeds of which help supplement the library's operational budget.
- E. Materials with the following conditions will not be accepted:
 - i. Moldy/musty with strong odor or water damage
 - ii. Dirty (greasy, food stained, insect infested, etc.)
 - iii. Marked by pens, pencils, crayons or highlighters
 - iv. Physically damaged (i.e. broken bindings, loose/torn pages, or damaged covers/cases)
- F. The library is unable to accept:
 - i. Textbooks/Medical books
 - ii. Condensed Books (i.e. Readers Digest Condensed Books, abridged audio)
 - iii. Nonfiction titles over five-years-old
 - iv. VHS tapes, audio tapes, or music CDs
 - v. Materials weeded from other libraries
 - vi. Single or back donated issues of magazines

The North Liberty Library (NLL) provides respectful, courteous service in an inclusive and non-discriminating environment. This policy outlines use of the library, services, and operations. The NLL supports the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights which states that "A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views (Article V)." - B. The library does not have staff, training, or State Certification to act as a childcare facility or in lieu of trained staff or family for vulnerable adults.

- E. Library staff may refer to social services or law enforcement those children or vulnerable adults who are left unattended in the library when a parent/guardian cannot be reached or if the behavior of the minor child or vulnerable adult falls outside acceptable behavior in the library. Please refer to the Library Conduct Policy for more information regarding acceptable behavior.

PROGRAMS POLICY

Library programs are planned public activities that are initiated or presented in partnership by the library and take place onsite and in other locations in the community. Programs may be presented by staff, volunteers, partner organizations and/or paid presenters.

Library programs are curated to connect members of our community with a variety of ideas and perspectives and to support our mission and values by complementing and furthering the goals of our strategic plan. Programs highlight collections, promote services, and share knowledge and expertise covering subjects and topics that represent a broad range of human experience.

II. Guidelines for Selection and Presentation of Library Programs

- A. Programs will be developed to eliminate racial, social, accessibility and equity barriers in library programming by facilitating connections with underserved areas of the community and implementing diversity, equity, and inclusion strategies.
- B. All programs must be open to the public. Reasonable attempts will be made to accommodate all who wish to attend a program.
 1. When safety or the nature of a program requires it, attendance will be determined on a first-come, first-served basis or by pre-registration
 2. Attendance may be limited when the number of participants reaches the room capacity established by the North Liberty Fire Department
 3. Programs designed for a general audience have no age restrictions. Programs designed for specific audiences may have attendance restrictions or requirements based on age
 4. It is the sole responsibility of parents or legal guardians to guide their children's use of the Library and its resources and services
- C. No Library program shall be purely commercial or for the solicitation of business. No expectation of making a purchase from a presenter shall be implied in any library program.
 1. A businessperson or other professional expert may present a program, however, the information presented may not promote their specific business interest or solicit future business without prior approval by library administration
 2. Fundraising and sales are permitted only when the event/program benefits the library with prior administration approval
- D. The Library generally offers programming free of charge. When the cost of a program exceeds the Library's programming budget, a program may charge a nominal fee to supplement the cost of speakers and/or materials
- E. The Library reserves the right to use video or photographs taken of the program participants for internal use, publication, and use in library promotional outlets, and for evaluation purposes.
- F. The Library is not obligated to represent multiple and/or opposing viewpoints within any one program or series and does not proscribe or cancel a program because an individual or group may find the content objectionable.

NOTE:

The Library recognizes that not all programs will be of interest or suitable for all users. Library sponsorship/partnership with other organizations or presenters does not constitute or imply an endorsement of its policies, beliefs, or program by any library personnel or by the City of North Liberty.

The North Liberty Library does not discriminate or condone discrimination against any person on the basis of race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, housing status, ability or ethnicity. Granting permission for meeting rooms does not constitute endorsement of any group's, or affiliated groups', viewpoints. Iowa's Civil Rights laws forbid discrimination on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, religion, or disability.

INTERNET & TECHNOLOGY POLICY

I. Purpose Statement

The North Liberty Library (NLL) is committed to digital equity. The library provides public access to computers, tablets, Internet and other devices in order to augment the community's educational and informational resources for library visitors of all ages.

II. Responsibilities of Patrons

- A. The public has access to technology and electronic devices - some devices are for in-library use only while other devices may be checked out. Internet resources and computer access through the library are provided equally to all. Children have access to the same resources as adults. It is the right and responsibility of guardians and caregivers to guide their children in the selection of resources compatible with their family's values and beliefs.
- B. The library cannot act in place of guardian/caregiver and urges guardians/caregivers to work with their own children in their use of Internet resources. Guardians/caregivers should be aware that the Internet is an unregulated global network and is neither a secure nor a private environment.
- C. The library is not responsible for security of personal information shared on or with non-library sites and users are encouraged to use caution before sharing personal information (name, address, password, telephone number, school or work, credit card number, etc.) online. This includes but is not limited to email, instant messaging, online purchasing, social media sites, and commercial sites. Customers handling financial transactions or other confidential activities do so at their own risk and should know that the internet may be subject to outside intervention. It should be noted that library staff may monitor Internet use in the usual performance of job duties.
- D. The library cannot guarantee the accuracy and/or authenticity of information discovered online, and staff assumes no responsibility for the quality, accuracy or currency of Internet resources. Patrons who find information or subject matter that is erroneous, out of date, illegal, offensive, and/or controversial should contact the original producer or distributor of that work directly.
- E. Users may not incur any costs to the NLL through access to fee-for-service information providers, shopping online or any other Internet use.
- F. The NLL is not responsible for damage incurred to a patron's personal storage devices or personal laptops or for any loss of data, damage or liability that may occur from patron use of the library's Internet services.
- G. The library's technology equipment is for public use and patrons should log off any personal online accounts after using library technology and save any work created during the session to a personal device or account. Once library computers are restarted, any data saved on the computers is deleted and the computers revert to the default library settings.

III. Time Limits

- A. Computers and other devices are available for one session daily up to 60 minutes.
- B. Patrons may request an extension of computer time based on availability.
- C. Arrangements for extended use for proctored exams or job searching/resume work may also be made.

III. Staff Assistance

- A. Library staff may be able to answer basic computer questions. Patrons may also request individual training or attend free technology-related computer assistance offered by NLL staff.
- B. Due to liability, the staff does not repair personal computers or devices and is unable to check personal systems for viruses, malware or other damages to the computer or device.

IV. Ethical Use

- A. Staff reserves the right to end a session if there is suggestion of misconduct, misuse, or illegal use of library computers and personal devices accessing the library's wireless service.
- B. Violations of this policy may result in the suspension or loss of Internet/computer privileges and/or lead to financial responsibility.
- C. Illegal acts involving library computers or personal devices accessing the library's wireless service may also be subject to prosecution by local, state or federal authorities. It is against Iowa law to download or provide child pornography or display pornography where it may be seen by children (Iowa Code, chapter 728.2).

V. Wireless Access at the Library

- A. Unfiltered, wireless Internet access is provided free of charge to anyone using their personal laptop computer or device equipped with functioning wireless or wired network connection.
- B. The Library assumes no responsibility for wireless users' equipment or software and cannot guarantee the security of your files or transmissions.

PROCTORING POLICY

I. Purpose Statement

The North Liberty Library is committed to supporting literacy and lifelong learning goals for all individuals. The library provides proctoring services to aid patrons and educational institutions. This service is based on the availability of personnel, facilities, and technology to do so. As such, the following responsibilities are set out.

II. Responsibilities of Student

- A. The student is responsible for initiating contact with library staff regarding proctored exams and for making necessary arrangements including confirming with library staff that the test has arrived (electronically or via mail) and scheduling a time to take the test.
- B. If a study room is required for the exam, the student is responsible for creating an account and booking the appropriate space using the library's online booking software available on the library website or requesting staff assistance to schedule the space.
- C. The student is responsible for ensuring that the computer resources at the library are adequate and available for test taking.
- D. The student will provide a valid driver's license or photo ID (if required) for verification of identity before the test will be proctored.
- E. Exams may be scheduled during open library hours and must end no less than 30 minutes before the closing of the library.
- F. The student should arrive prepared with the necessary or required supplies to take the exam. These supplies will be made available for approval by the proctor, if required.

Child Safety Policy

Revised as of November, 2018

The North Liberty Community Center welcomes all ages and aims to provide an environment / place for all to enjoy. Patron safety and welfare are top priorities. The community center is the heartbeat of the City and we strongly promote family use. Recreation Staff have been researching ways to minimize recent incidents of unattended children, theft, bullying, fighting, pool safety jumps and disrespectful actions among patrons, towards staff and to the facility. We have also researched other facilities in preparing our recommendation:

Children in Grade 6 or older may use the facility without supervision.

Unattended Child Age:

Children in Grade 5 and under must be accompanied by an adult, sibling, sitter who is at least 16 years old for drop- in use or enrolled in a supervised activity/program when using the facility. Supervision must be in visual contact and same area of facility.

Children who have completed Grade 5 in May and will be in Grade 6 in the Fall must obtain a Facility Pass and may utilize designated drop-in use areas without supervision. Cannot use track or weight & exercise equipment unless supervised by an adult and pay associated fees.

Grade 7 & 8 must show a current School ID or obtain a Track Pass and may utilize the facility on own; except for the weight area in which they must be under the guidance of an adult and pay associated fees.

Grade 9-12 must show a current School ID or obtain a Membership Pass and may utilize the facility including the weight area and pay associated fees with no adult supervision.

Facility Pass / Identification: Children in Grade 6 or older without a school ID, must obtain a Facility Pass and present it upon each visit to facility, unless enrolled in a supervised activity/program. The Facility Pass will help identify and monitor usage during free play in the gymnasium, pools, library or community center grounds.

Facility passes can be purchased on a monthly or annual basis. North Liberty residents: $10 per month, $60 annual. Non-residents: $13 per month, $75 annual. A $2 replacement fee will be assessed to all for each new card printed. Facility passes can be obtained and completed with a parent or guardian in person at the North Liberty Community Center during regular business hours.

Loitering / Non-supervised Areas: Appropriate behavior to others, to staff and to the facility is expected and is the responsibility of each person. Rec Staff are present to answer questions, clarify rules and resolve issues that are brought to their attention. Library/Recreation Staff do not have direct supervision of children at all times and in all areas of the facility, loitering and random wandering throughout the facility will not be tolerated. Locker rooms for example should not be a place for kids to hang out. Facility drop-in use parameters for approved areas of use, expectations and conduct rules may be requested by parent and child.

Patron Discipline Policy: Use of the North Liberty Community Center is a privilege. If patrons are involved in any issue of theft, bullying, fighting and disrespectful actions among patrons, towards staff and to the facility disciplinary action will be enforced. A copy of the Patron Disciplinary Policy may be requested by parent and child.

Sincerely,

Shelly Simpson Recreation Director
